WE ARE IN NEWS

VFX, and its growing scope

AASHESH RATHI, DIRECTOR, ARENA ANIMATION, TILAK ROAD, PUNE

When reality meets and blends with the imagination, VFX begins.

The demand for Visual Effects (VFX) has been rising relentlessly with the production of movies and television shows set in fantasy worlds with imaginary creatures like dragons, magical realms, extraterrestrial planets and galaxies, and more. Visual FX helps transform the ordinary into something extraordinary.

Reach of VFX Industry in India
The VFX industry is estimated to grow at the rate of 17.2 percent over the next 4 years to reach a size of 131.7 billion, driven by a steady 9.5 percent growth in animation and a 21 percent growth in the VFX segment. India has evolved in terms of skillset which has helped local and domestic studios work for Global Visual FX projects. The Visual FX Industry is expected to hire about 1,000-1,500 personnel in the coming year.

VFX has gained prominence for the following reasons:

- Films and Television - The increasing use of Visual FX across the globe and in Indian films and the stupendous success of these movies with its spectacular vis-demand for Visual FX professionals to build websites and microsites and create digital content that is of the next level.

We at Arena Animation - Tilak Road are an authorized training center of Autodesk to teach VFX using Nuke (a node-based digital compositing and visual effects application), NukeX and Nuke Studio (offer cutting-edge toolkits for node-based compositing, editorial, and review.

Who is using Nuke? Discover how artists and studios around the world use Nuke to push the boundaries of creativity and deliver epic results, from VR projects to the biggest feature films.

Students here, get introduced to Nuke, learn VFX film making, Rotoscoping (an animation technique that animators use to trace over motion picture footage, frame by frame, to produce realistic action) using still-shots, match moving and camera tracking, wire removal and matte painting.

- Advertising - Use of Visual FX in advertisements is on the rise, helping products stand out in this cut-throat world of competition.
- Gaming - From intellectual games to pure to fantasy games, the demand for video games across genres and ages is on the rise.
- Internet - The internet is here to stay and its reach is only going to grow further. There is a growing
